Eligible Activities:

Acquisition: The purchase in fee of an eligible property, structure, facility, or site by the County, a municipality or charitable conservancy.

Stabilization: The essential maintenance of a deteriorated structure, facility as it exists at present, establishing structural stability and a weather resistant enclosure

Rehabilitation: The act or process of making possible compatible use of a property through repair, alteration, and addition while preserving those portions or features that convey its historical, cultural, or architectural value. Rehabilitation emphasizes the retention and repair of historic materials, but more latitude is provided for replacement because it is assumed the property is more deteriorated prior to work. Both Preservation and Rehabilitation standards focus attention on the preservation of those materials, but more latitude is provided for replacement because it is assumed the property is more deteriorated prior to work. Both Preservation and Rehabilitation standards focus attention on the preservation of those materials, features, finishes, spaces, and spatial relationships that, together, give a property its historic character.

Restoration: The act or process of accurately depicting the form, features, and character of a property as it appeared at the most significant time in the property's history by the retention of materials from the most significant time and reconstruction of missing features from the most significant time, while permitting the removal of materials from other periods.

Preservation: The act or process of accurately depicting the form, features, and character of a property as it appeared at the most significant time in the property's history by the retention of materials from the most significant time and reconstruction of missing features from the most significant time, while permitting the removal of materials from other periods.

Emergency Activity: The acquisition, stabilization or repair of a property may be permitted provided the property is in imminent danger of destruction, demolition, or collapse and the Trust Fund has available funds.
